

JANUARY 2016 NEWSLETTER

241 residents placed!

Using additional ODOT funding in the year ending Nov. of 2015, Ohio Means Jobs Cleveland-Cuyahoga County (OMJ|CC) has successfully placed 241 Opportunity Corridor residents into employment! The top three areas occurred in general labor, healthcare and manufacturing. Their outreach also included 37 targeted recruitment sessions for residents.

The success has continued since this first full year, as 44 new residents from Wards 4, 5 and 6 were placed into jobs during December 2015, while 14 residents received training services leading to in-demand positions.

Minority real estate professionals learn about neighborhood development potential

2015 Real Estate Associate Program graduates and Cleveland Realist members were invited to PNC Fairfax Connection to learn firsthand about the Opportunity Corridor project and potential development opportunities in adjacent neighborhoods. Executive Director Marie Kittredge gave an overview of the boulevard and construction schedule, while Anthony Whitfield of Fairfax Renaissance Development Corporation shared neighborhood plans with potential for early-stage development. Vince Adamus of Greater Cleveland Partnership also presented information on potential incentives for real estate development projects.

Interested in creating apps or software?

For those interested in building a career in technology, the Tri-C Software Developers Academy: Cleveland Codes offers a 24-week immersive program which includes an eight-week paid internship! The classes provide students with the skills necessary to pursue a career in web application and development, learning to program C# within the .NET framework. Tri-C invites applicants of all educational and economic backgrounds to register and complete a brief eligibility assessment.
